SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

As the story began, our daily schedule seemed a little mixed up to us "Freshmen" the first week of school, but everything (and everyone) soon got organized.

As Sophomores, the most exciting thing that happened was serving at the Junior-Senior Banquet. We will all remember our geometry class with Coach Kloewer, too.

In our Junior year we had fun selling magazine subscriptions around town. The money we made was used for the Junior-Senior Banquet. The theme was "In Apple Blossom Time". Many of us also participated in the presentation of our class play, "Aaron Slick from Pumpkin Creek". Another big event in our Junior year was winning the Boyer Valley Conference Football Trophy.

We began our Senior year with great anticipation of graduation. Initiating the freshmen was fun this year, as we were the ones doing the initiating. Another exciting event was breaking the 49-game losing streak for the girls basketball team.

We will always be remembered as the "Graduates of 1966".

Junior Class History

The years just seem to fly by, and already we are upperclassmen. Remember way back, Juniors, when we were seventh graders? We were all pretty excited about being in "Junior-Hi" and I'm sure none of us will ever forget Mrs. Brockman. We experienced our first try at basketball and we all had a riot at those skating parties--even if we couldn't walk the day afterward!

Finally came eighth grade! We were now lord and masters of grade school. This was the year we really had a big part in homecoming--our float. Remember all the arguments and confusion and how could we ever forget our Science Fair? Thanks to Mr. Dorfler and Mrs. Kahl we had a very successful year and eagerly looked forward to high school.

In the fall of 1963 we--heads held high--walked up that extra flight of stairs to that long awaited place-- high school. But soon we found it wasn't all fun. The work was lots harder and those tests were really something else, right, kids? We were also disillusioned by the gory tales we heard Freshman initiation. But, in spite of sore backs and dirty knees received from bowing to those royal seniors, we all had a wonderful time at the dance held in our honor.

Our sophomore year we were experienced high school students and we could now look down on someone--the freshmen. Remember that thrilling class, biology? And although most of us could not go to the Junior-Senior Prom, some of us got to serve.

And now we are enjoying the importance of being upperclassmen. Some of us got to participate in the class play and after an endless wait our class rings finally came! We can now look forward to our prom and to being seniors of D-C-A next year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

In seventh grade we were introduced to basketball. The highlight of the girls season was when they won their first game with Charter Oak-Ute. Remember all the fun we had at those skating parties! In the seventh grade the boys were not afraid to skate or dance. Too bad we still are not in seventh grade.

Our eighth grade year started off with a bang when the Arion students were introduced to the Dow City students. Of course we awaited more skating parties, until Mrs. Wingrove, the seventh grade teacher, received an injury on the back of her leg by a bar window covering. While Mrs. Wingrove was recovering, Mr. Butterworth took her place for six months. The students did not care to have any more skating parties after Mrs. Wingrove's accident. Mr. Dorfler, the eighth grade teacher and coach, tried to make better students and basketball players out of us.

We were all a bit frightened upon entering high school. But we all marched in and took our seats with the older students. We all studied hard because we were worried what would happen to us if we did not. We attended dances and other activities and usually had plenty of fun. Some of Mr. Dorfler's hard-working eighth graders started to play high school basketball. We were really glad when the Freshman Initiation Dance was over because now the seniors could not pick on us anymore, at least not too much!

As sophomores we are all getting a bit braver and a bit smarter. We looked forward to the Freshman Initiation Dance because now we could all sit back and watch the fun. We all have two years of high school left in which to have fun and to get better grades. I am sure everyone is looking forward to owning their own class rings next year. I wonder who will be the first to give their ring away.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

On our first morning of school 10 years ago, 36 pupils walked timidly into Miss Brummer's classroom. We were all a little scared but soon everyone knew everyone else and all were friends. As all good pupils do, we eagerly learned to read and count.

It wasn't until second grade that we became acquainted with music and learned to write. Later, homework was part of our evening schedule.

Fifth grade was about the best of all. We broke in Miss Comstock, who was just out of college. We liked her and she must have liked us, too, because she invited us to her wedding in May.

After going through several teachers in sixth grade and two in seventh, we finally reached eighth grade. Our class increased in size by ten when the Arion pupils joined us. This was the year that our fun began with skating parties and dances. Although only a few got up the courage to ask someone else to skate or dance, almost everyone had fun. Hardly anyone ever left the skating party without a bump or bruise. And don't forget basketball! We didn't win any games, but we did try, didn't we?!!

Everyone, we are happy to say, made it to high school. Now, we are freshmen. Of course, everyone was scared of initiation!! But, it turned out that the seniors weren't quite as mean as we had anticipated. We all had a real nice time at the dance which the seniors gave in our honor.

But, now we're in the full swing of things. Everyone is quite busy with their studies and activities. We are looking forward to our last three years of high school, hoping they will be as enjoyable as this year has been.

The Junior Band is something new for Dow City, created by our new band director, Mark Loeffler. It includes students from the sixth through eighth grade. As their ability increases, they move up to the high school band. The Junior Band performed at the Christmas concert.

The Mixed Chorus participates in various activities throughout the school year. They present two concerts a year--the first at Christmas, and the second in the spring. The concerts have a wide variety of music, including sacred, modern, humorous, and many others.

In addition to the concerts, they participate in a contest in the early spring. The practice they put into their songs is shown at these contests, where they usually receive top honors. Baccalaureate and Graduation are memorable occasions for those seniors singing with the chorus for the last time.

The Night Crawlers

Imagine a stormy night in an abandoned farmhouse "way out in the mountains." Inside that gloomy setting are the zaniest assortment of weird characters you've ever seen--even a vampire! Of course, he's not really a vampire and the others aren't spooky either. They're all young people anxious to get jobs on television portraying ghostly characters.

Mrs. Yates, who has charge of such things at a TV studio, and her teenage daughter are traveling through the hills. If they can convince hard-to-fool Mrs. Yates that they are spirits, surely she'll decide they're the best actors in the world! At least, that's what they think.

But wait a minute . . . something's gone wrong! The "make believe" ghosts aren't the only ones who are haunting this old house . . .

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

On Wednesday morning, the students from the Dow City school and the elementary students from the Arion school enjoyed an assembly program. The presentation was a variety of acts ranging from musical numbers to juggling.

The act was enjoyed by all.

REPORT CARDS

This week brings to a close the first quarter of our school year. With the end of the nine weeks here, we find many dreaded things. These things range from nine-weeks' tests to receiving our report cards and finding out how really unintelligent we are.

in weight. They also planted seeds and made booklets to keep track of day-by-day changes they will see.

In spelling, English language and arithmetic we have been reviewing lessons, since this is the end of the nine weeks.

Those absent this last week were Roger Peterson, Russell Marr and Gene Langenfeld.

SIXTH GRADE

In Iowa history we are studying about the different capitals that Iowa has had. We now have a new map of Iowa which will help us so much.

The girls have been very busy decorating the room for Halloween.

Ruth Argotsinger and Mike Muff had birthdays this week. We enjoyed the treats so much.

FIFTH GRADE

Birthdays were celebrated this week by Ace Ettleman and Melanie Ohl. Thank you for the treats.

Committees for our Halloween party have been appointed. Paula Cross is chairman of refreshments; Rhonda Sharp, of decorations and Marilyn Heiss for games. Every recess the decorations and game committees spend time preparing surprises for the party Friday.

Nine-week tests are being taken this week. We will be glad when they are over.

Our bulletin board shows poems that we have written on leaves that we painted for art class. It is entitled Autumn Leaves.

EIGHTH GRADE

This week we have been working hard because report cards will soon be coming out.

Wednesday in P.E. class, Patsy Truitt fell down while playing speed ball and was dismissed from school at 2:15. The class was glad she was back Thursday.

In science we were trying to find optical illusions.

In civics we made a report on a given subject about government and read them to the class.

We are studying decimals and per cent in math. Some people are having trouble with them.

Pam F., Faye B., and Chris B. put up a new bulletin board about the remaining month of October and November.
